Baroque and Renaissance music will be performed and discussed by Peter and Patricia Dewitt at this session of the Words and Music Series on Tuesday, September 20, 2022, beginning at 1:00 p.m. Presented by EMMA Concerts, the Words and Music Series features a variety of musical and cultural explorations on stage at The Waterworks in St. Augustine, FL.

This event will feature instruments such as the viola de gamba, harpsichord, and recorder which were used during much of the Renaissance and Baroque periods. Peter and Patricia will take the audience on a musical timeline from the 15th-century Renaissance period into the later Baroque period in the 18th century, explaining the popular music of each era.

The DeWitts will perform and discuss works by composers including Cabezon, Handel, Isaac, and others to illustrate how vocal and instrumental music changed during that time.

The Waterworks Building is located on San Marco Avenue, north of the traffic circle.

Admission: Free

When: Tuesday, September 20, 2022, from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

Where: The Waterworks is located at 184 San Marco Avenue in St. Augustine, Florida 32084.
